Dear Mr. Weisberg,

My name is John Peterson. I am fifteen years old. I am writing to you in regards to your knowledge and information on John F. Kennedy's life and assassination. I have read countless books, magazines, and newspaper clippings on J.F.K. I would be eternally grateful to you for any information, papers, etc. that you would be able to send me. I would pay for any mailing fees that you might have. Please do not discard this letter. I would be very grateful for any help that you might give me. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,
John Peterson
